

In the spirit of the Yuletide season, Department of Science and Technology officials and media friends spent a night of uninhibited fun and laughter in a Christmas party held at the G.A. Sky Suites showroom in Quezon City.

Assistant Secretary Carol M. Yorobe of the Department of Science and Technology hands over the prizes to the winners during the DOST Media Christmas Party at the G. A. Sky Suites in Quezon City. Media personalities both from the broadcast and print share a night of fun with the key officials of the agency.

Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines (IP Philippines) Director General Atty. Adrian S. Cristobal, Jr. and Philippine Science Journalists Association, Inc. (PSciJourn) President Angelo B. Palmones (second and third from left, respectively) seal with a handshake the two organizations' partnership for the conduct of the IPR Forum, held October 25 at the DOST- Philvolcs Auditorium in UP Diliman, Quezon City.

PCHRD Executive Director Jaime C. Montoya announces DOST-supported researches on commonly grown plants that can cure some common illnesses. This effort is aimed to help keep medicine costs down. Photo shows (L-R), Dr. Danilo C. Cardenas of PCARRD, DOST Secretary Estrella F. Alabastro, PCHRD Executive Director Jaime C. Montoya, and PCASTRD Executive Director Reynaldo V. Ebor.

Key agency DOST Secretary Estrella F. Alabastro (left) shares a light conversation with Philippine Council for Health Research and Development Executive Director Jaime C. Montoya and Philippine Council for Advanced Science and Technology Research and Development Executive Director Reynaldo V. Ebor during the DOST press conference on Biotechnology where Dr. Montoya discusses the agency's position on alternative medicine sources from commonly grown plants which are believed to have efficacy effect on some common illnesses.